INDEPENDENCE DAY. CELEBRATED WITH THE USUAL

FESTIVITIES. Manhattan, Manchester, Herington, Gypsum City, Chapman and furnishing goods of every description.

The weather gods were unquestionably in league with Uncle Sam Wednesday for the day, if we except the extreme heat, was a perfect one for belebrating the Nation's anniversary of

The city was early alive with the bustle of departure, and it seemed as though a wholesale exodus was taking place as the trains rolled out with their burdens of living freight, bound for a day of pleasure and rest.

The largest delegation was that for Manhattan. At 8 o'clack five cars filled with Abileneites were attached to the special, already having eight cars, which came in from the west over the Union Pacific. Among those upon this train were the Gazette band, the fire companies and the drum corps. At Manhattan it was estimated that 8,000 people were visitors in the city. The order of exercises included a magnificent procession through the principal streets of the city, a fine trades display etc., The afternoon was given up to an exciting series of contests. We have not space to give the long list of awards. Abilene was not by any means in the rear of the procession. The Hook and Ladder company walked away with the first prize, $25, on a one bundred yards run with a climb of 18 feet. No. 2 divided first and second money, $40 and $25, with No. 2, of Minneapolis. The prize for the best appearing company was not awarded yesterday, the judges reserving their decision. It lies, however, between the Junction City fire department and Abilene No. 2.

The Manchester visitors are loud in praise of the day's doings at that thriving little city. The music of the day was furnished by the Industry band and a drum corps. There were good speeches by J. R. Vickers, Jonas Freet and J. C. Cline.

The horse racing was exceptionally good. Knapp's horse, of Abilene, carried off first money in the contest of speed. Baseball and fireworks were features of the occasion.

Herington won a goodly representation from Abilene and South Dickinson. The city was filled to overflowing with the assembled crowds.

Speaking and music in the magnificent park filled up the morning, and the afternoon was devoted to races and a good game of ball. In the evening a campfire of the G. A. R. was held in the park and the new water works were tested for the first time, an 80 foot stream being thrown with ease. Fireworks in abundant profusion were displayed and made an appropriate ending for a perfect day.

Chapman did not have the immense crowd of some of the other cities but it made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers. An old-fashioned picnic was held in Erwin's grove. Addresses were made by F. A. Smalley and Father Kelley. A ball continued the festivities until almost morning. An exceptionally entertaining day was had.

Gypsum City was fortunate in securing the services of J. R. Burton as their speaker. The usual features of an Independence day celebration were given in good style. The races, the base ball etc., were unusually attractive. Special trains brought people from Hope, Carlton and Salina.

Enterprise had a picnic in the River side park, where a good number of patriots spent the day imbibing health rest and enjoyment. A ball game was played, in which the Abilene Kids did up the Enterprise club to the tune of 20 to 4.

In Abilene, as we intimated, peace and harmony reigned supreme. The small boys, who were too impecunious to visit our neighboring cities, tampered with the festive firecracker in undisturbed tranquility. The older persons, presumably wiser, stretched their weary forms in lazy attitudes in hammocks or on the lawn, and were lulled to slumber by the southern breezes that rippled the summer leaves. The gallant cavaliers who remained in town took their ladies out for an evening drive or perhaps picniced in their blissful company 'neath the boughs of the forests primeval, that murmur by the banks of the noble Smoky.

Altogether, our people had a delightful day and if there were some with sleepy faces and lagging footsteps on our streets Thursday, its only a testimonial of the exuberance of enjoyment and courtesy shown the dwellers in the Belle by the large-hearted, hospitable citizens having in charge the celebrations in our sister cities.

Identified.

The plow brought into court among the stolen goods found in the possession of the robber gang of northeast Dickinson, was today identified by Milton L. Engle, a farmer living six miles southeast of the city. The plow has been missing for more than a year and it was a great surprise to Mr. Engle to find it in the place he did.

The Hope M. E. church has twentyone members.

Two places in the Solomon corps of teachers remain to be filled.

A CHANGE OF BASE.

G. C. Sterl & Co. Move into New Quarters and Inaugurate a Closing

Friday the wide-awake firm of G. C. Sterl moved their entire stock of boots and shoes and men's furnishing goods into the store formerly occupied by A. E. Bishop & Co. The dry goods stock Abilene People Enjoy the Day at has been sold and the firm will devote its entire attention hereafter to men's

They will at once begin a closing out sale at rock-bottom prices of everything in this line now in stock, preparatory to putting in a new and very complete assortment of men's furnishing goods in the latest styles and of all possible varieties.

While this closing out sale is going on, the new store will be repapered and refitted, making it one of the most elegant rooms in the city.

Sterl & Co. have always been among the leaders in their line of goods and now that they turn their entire attention to gentlemen's apparel, we predict that they will astonish the public with the bargains they will offer.

A WAYWARD DAUGHTER.

Leaves Her Home and Flies With Her Lover-The Father Searching For Her Unsuccessfully.

Friday afternoon J. B. Lundy, a well o-do farmer living near Navarre, drove into the city in search of his sixteen year-old daughter who left the parental roof this morning about daylight. She was accompanied by her 14 year old brother George, why, the father cannot

Mr. Lundy is a widower and his daughter, the eldest of seven children was the manager of the household She has been dissatisfied with home for sometime and told the neighbors that when she was eighteen she would run away and get married. She did not wait, however, as she skipped out this morning taking with her all her wearing apparel and everything she owned.

Her father suspected nothing and is at a loss to know where she went. He called at the probate judge's office but no marriage licenses have been issued here. She has been keeping company with a young man living north of Hope and Mr. Lundy suspected that he had had a carriage near the house and borne her away, but a call on hin this morning found him at home hard at work and professedly ignorant of any irregular proceedings. Miss Clara is a beautiful brunette. well developed for her age and with a decided will of her own. She had no acquaintances in Abilene, except one or two business men and scarcely anywhere else, having lived all her life on

Mr. Lundy is sorely puzzled over his daughter's disappearance, as he would have preferred that the girl marry, if that was her intention, in the orthodox manner. The absence of the brother makes the case still more puzzling.

TO SERVE THEIR SENTENCES.

Five Prisoners Leave for the Penitentiary to Enter on Their Terms of Imprisonment.

Sheriff Nail and W. H. Roe, as his deputy, took out Friday on the noon train five of the prisoners who have been convicted during this term of court. The men were shackled to the seats and to each other, though they showed no disposition to make their

A large crowd was at the depot to see them depart and scrutinized the criminals with the usual curiosity The objects of the pitying glances seemed indeed to deserve sympathy though they did not exhibit much emotion. There was, however, no bravado in their bearing, all being apparently crushed by the event. This was due no doubt to the fact that none of them are hardened criminals familiar with prison bars, but, comparatively speaking, new hands at crime. The murderer, Morgan, was the center of attraction. He gazed stolidly on the crowd with a mournful, far-away expression, that was sorrowful in the extreme. The fact that he has tried twice to commit suicide, proves that life has little attraction for him.

The criminals were:

Thomas Morgan, sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and then death by hanging, for the murder of John Gaul, near the Marion county line,

Isaiah Johnson, convicted of burglary and grand larceny, sentenced to six years imprisonment. Johnson is 66 years old and his case is, on that account, the more deplorable.

Hiram Johnson, his son, same crime, nine years imprisonment. He was the leader of the Noble township robber gang and got an extra dose on that Henry Kreinhop, same crime, seven years of hard labor.

Martin Thomas, same crime and sen-

The four last mentioned are members of the gang that has infested northeast Dickinson for the past two years. The county is well rid of them.

It is a dispiriting scene to see the entrance upon a long term of expiation within stone walls and iron bars, of a party of robust men who might have done good in the world instead of evil; ing. but if men will follow the paths of wickedness and crime, they must expect to take the consequences.

Installation.

The following officers of Abilene Lodge No. 93 A. O. U. W., were installed last Thursday night by District

Deputy G. M. W., A. H. Paul: W. L. Allison, P. M. W.; R. B Jacobs, M. W.; J. W. Monroe, F.; D. L. Pisle, Rec.; M. V. Brillhart, Fin. T. E. Dewey, Receiver; R. A. Brown. Guide; P. R. Pitts, I. W. George Sherer, O. G.; and C. C. Shaler, O. W. E. being absent were not installed. The reports of this Lodge show that it is in a very prosperous condition having 97 members in good standing and a well filled treasury.

Death of Mrs. Geo. Thisler.

The news was brought to this city Saturday of the death of Mrs. George Thisler this morning at Chapman. Mrs. Thisler was the mother of O. L., Ed. and Moses Thisler, well known citizens of this county. She was about sixty-five years of age and had been somewhat feeble for a year, the result of a stroke of paralysis.

She met death fearlessly and hopefully, sustained by the hope of a blessed reunion on the other shore. She has been for years a faithful member of the Methodist church and died triumphant in her belief.

Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners met in regular session July 2d. There were present, J. W. Baker, Simon Stein, H. W. Kandt and M. H. Bert, clerk.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. The board spent the morning considering and allowing bills. On motion an appropriation of $92 was made to County Superintendent J. S. Ford for Normal Institute fund.

The afternoon session and that of the following morning were spent considering and allowing bills. In the afternoon, in addition to considering bills, it was ordered that part of the East Abilene Town Company's addition to Abilene be assessed as lands and the difference between the land assessment and that already paid be refunded to said company. 'The board then adjourned to July 5th.

Thursday morning bills were con sidered as before.

Dr. Wrightsman appeared before th board and petitioned to have the town site of Navarre assessed as lands instead of as town lots. The assessment was accepted as returned by the assessors of Logan township. In the afternoon the most important measure was the striking from the tax rolls a part of the assessment of A. D. Blanchett on 9:15stock in the Hope creamery, it appearing that he was doubly assessed.

Friday morning the board took a recess for the day and went to Sutphen's Mills for the purpose of investigating the bridge across Chapman creek at that place. This morning, the addition to Abilene was placed in the list of farm lands and its value assessed at $8 per acre, it appearing that no improvements had been made on the land. On motion the treasury examiners' report was accepted. The following bonds were approved: J. L. Galbreath. justice of the peace, Lincoln township; Pat. Donnelly, same, Noble township; bond of Canton (O.) Bridge Co. The assessment of M. T. Sheldon being erroneous, it was adjusted. Viewers' report of J. H. Bert road was adopted and road ordered opened. Board adjourned to 1 p. m.

Saturday afternoon the board met at

The personal property assessment of the Berry-Prendergast Land company being erroneous, it was adjusted.

The assessment of J. T. Prendergast on a steam engine in Jefferson township being erroneous, it was stricken from the tax roll.

The viewers' report on the Henquenet road was accepted and the road ordered to be opened. Fritz Ratz, Albert Brunner and

George Stann were appointed viewers on | delay. the road petitioned for by H. Shaffner D. J. Kimmerly, M. Kingery and E.

Obituary.

Died, at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Townsend, of Buckeye, Tp. Mrs. I. Lawrence, wife of Edward Lawrence, June 28, 1888, aged 28 years. 2 months and 23 days. Her husband is left with an infant child to bear the loss known only to those, who have had a similar experience. She leaves a sister and many friends to mourn her early death. But we sorrow not without hope. When death came she was ready and sank into his embrace with meek and exultant resignation.

The funeral services were attended by a large concourse of people, Sunday July 1st. She rests in peace.

Ethel May Slaybaugh was born July 5, 1877, and died July 1, 1888, age 11 months and 26 days. This little girl had just been adopted into the family of Isaac and Elizabeth Slaybough, of Buckeye township, and had already won the affection of the family. We learn by this that earth's fairest blossoms soon fade and die. She was buried in the Livingston cemetery Monday, July 2, 1888.
